

Accounts technician course launched

PAWAN TIWARI

CHANDIGARH, JANUARY 3

The Institute of Cost and Works Accountants of India (ICWAI) announced today that the institute had launched an accounting technician course from this year.

While addressing the media, Kunal Banerjee, president of the ICWAI, said the institute had also signed the mutual recognition of Indian ICWAI with CIMA, UK, a leading management accountancy institute in the world.

“The institute, continuing its efforts in the management-accounting field, has introduced the Management Accounting Guidelines in India, in collaboration with the CMA, Canada,” said Kunal.

Recently, the institute has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU). The MoU would provide recognition of the ICWAI examination by IGNOU, where students would be eligible for IGNOU’s BCom degree by passing institute’s four exams, he added.

The mode of education will be in both the languages, Hindi and English, with three years of the course duration.